1. General instructions

The Company has received a Notice of Inquiry from the Registrar issued under Section 269(a) or 269(e) of the Myanmar Companies Law 2017. Sections 269(b), (d) and (e) state as follows:

“(b) On the receipt of a notice under sub-section (a), it shall be the duty of all persons who are or have been directors or officers of the company to furnish such information or explanation to the best of their ability.

(d) If such information or explanation is not furnished within the specified time, or if after perusal of such information or explanation the Registrar is of opinion that the document in question discloses an unsatisfactory state of affairs, or that it does not disclose a full and fair statement of the matters to which it purports to relate, the Registrar shall report in writing the circumstances of the case to the Union Minister.

(e) If it is represented to the Registrar in materials placed before the Registrar by any contributory or creditor that the business of a company is carried on in fraud of its creditors or in fraud of persons dealing with the company or for a fraudulent purpose, the Registrar may, after giving the company an opportunity of being heard by written notice, call on the company for information or explanation on matters specified in the notice within such time as the Registrar may specify in the notice, and the provisions of sub-sections (b) and (d) of this section and section 270 shall apply to such notice. If upon investigation the Registrar is satisfied that any representation on which the Registrar has taken action under this sub-section is frivolous or vexatious, the Registrar shall disclose the identity of the informant to the company.”
