P-05: Application for renewal of insolvency practitioner's practising certificate submitted during suspension period

[Section 13 Insolvency Law 2020, rule 47(l) Insolvency Rules 2020]

Submit this application if:

- (i) the insolvency practitioner failed to submit a Form P-04 application for annual renewal of insolvency practitioner's practising certificate before the expiry of the insolvency practitioner's practising certificate; and
- (ii) the suspension period in accordance with rule 47(l) has not yet expired.

Please note that the insolvency practitioner is only required to change the particulars in this application form where the information has changed since he or she last informed the Registrar of the relevant particulars.

Note: If the insolvency practitioner fails to file a Form P-04 application for annual renewal of insolvency practitioner's practising certificate before the expiry of the insolvency practitioner's practising certificate, together with the prescribed filing fee, the Registrar must suspend the registration of the insolvency practitioner and the insolvency practitioner's name will be removed from the Register of Insolvency Practitioners unless an application for renewal in compliance with rule 47(a), (b) and (c) of the Insolvency Rules is filed with the Registry before expiry of the three month suspension period, together with the additional prescribed late filing fee (rule 47(l) Insolvency Rules).

If the insolvency practitioner submits this Form P-05, together with the additional prescribed late filing fee, before the expiry of the suspension period, the Registrar will restore the insolvency practitioner's name to the Register of Insolvency Practitioner's and his or her practising certificate will be deemed not to have lapsed unless the Council notifies the Registrar that the insolvency practitioner's application for renewal has been refused (rule 47(m) Insolvency Rules).
