

P-06: Application for reinstatement of insolvency practitioner's practising certificate

[Section 13 Insolvency Law 2020, rule 47(n) Insolvency Rules 2020]

Submit this application if the insolvency practitioner's practising certificate has lapsed and the insolvency practitioner's name has been removed from the Registry of Insolvency Practitioners because:

- (i) the insolvency practitioner failed to submit a Form P-04 application for annual renewal of insolvency practitioner's practising certificate before the expiry of the insolvency practitioner's practising certificate; and
- (ii) the insolvency practitioner failed to submit a Form P-05 application for renewal of insolvency practitioner's practising certificate submitted during suspension period, before the expiry of the suspension period.

Please note that the insolvency practitioner is only required to change the particulars in this application form where the information has changed since he or she last informed the Registrar of the relevant particulars.

Note: Where the insolvency practitioner's practising certificate has lapsed by reason of his or her failure to renew it within the time provided in section 13 of the Insolvency Law or under rule 47 of the Insolvency Rules, and the Registrar has removed the insolvency practitioner's name from the Register of Insolvency Practitioners, the Council may, on the application of the insolvency practitioner and in its absolute discretion, order the reinstatement or renewal of the insolvency practitioner's practising certificate on such conditions as it sees fit (including the payment of any additional fee), in which event, and subject to the satisfaction of those conditions, the practising certificate will be deemed not to have lapsed (rule 47(n) Insolvency Rules).
